(Dhaka) 3rd March 2022, Thursday: World-renowned fashion icon Bibi Russell and prominent theatre personality-actor Tariq Anam Khan have recently joined Tagore University of Creative Arts (TUCA) as honorary teachers respectively in fashion design and theatre department. It is to be noted TUCA is a UGC approved private university whose curriculum is based on the philosophy of the Nobel Laureate Rabindranath Tagore.

A correct way of reality based know-how and learning for fashion is responsive to passing time. Keeping it in mind, total discourse of Fashion Design in Tagore University of Creative Arts (TUCA) would be structured in such a way where every student will find a ray of opportunity of perfect learning that will lead him or her to be able for excellent job. Not only that, he or she will bring in brand for Bangladesh in world arena. I am really glad to be associated with such an ongoing creativity of TUCA. This are the excerpts from comments of Bibi Russell -a towering figure in the World of Fashion at the moment of her joining.

Prominent theatre personality-actor Tariq Anam Khan said at the same moment of his joining TUCA family that man is immortal for his creation and creativity sustains civilization. We are the theatre activists have to pass rigorous creativeness all through. He also feels lucky for being one with theatre department of TUCA. Let theatre of Bangladesh be spreading out, be blossomed all over this planet. This is his ending views.

In addition, icon in the World of music Rezwana Choudhury Bannya, prominent theatre personality Ramendu Majumdar, noted actress Shampa Reza, iconic dance performers Laila Hasan, Shibli Mohammad, Shamim Ara Nipa are also involved in academic activities of Tagore University of Creative Arts.
